ORDINANCE NO. 77.

An Ordinance to authorize and regulate the holding of Political Primary Elections in the City of Live Oak, Florida, for nominating candidates for any office under the Charter of the said City of Live Oak, and for electing members of the Executive or standing City Committee of the Political party calling such Election.

BE IT ORDAINED, by the Mayor and City Council of the City of Live Oak, Florida:

SECTION 1. Whenever the Executive or Standing City Committee of any political party in the City of Live Oak shall decide to take by primary election the sense of the members of said party as to the proper person or persons to be presented on behalf of that party to the voters of said city at any election to be held in said City under the law and Ordinances thereof, at least four weeks' notice shall be given by publication once each week in some newspaper published in the City of Live Oak, or by posting notice of such primary election in three conspicuous places within said city, if there be no newspaper published therein, of the place where the voters belonging to that party are requested to meet for the purpose of acting in relation to the nomination of candidates as hereinabove stated. In such notice and the primary election held in pursuance thereof the sense of the members of that party may also be taken as to the proper person or persons to be elected as the members of such executive or standing city committee to succeed the committee calling the same.

SECTION 2. Such notice shall also state the day on which such election is to be held and the hours within which it is to be held and the name of the inspectors and clerk appointed to hold such election and receive votes that may be cast thereat and make report and return thereof and the time when such return and report shall be made to the committee directing such meeting to be held.

SECTION 3. Whenever the executive or standing city committee of any political party which in the last preceding election cast forty per cent of the votes cast, shall have called a primary election for a general election the registration books of said City shall be open for ten week days immediately preceding the three days before any such primary election and the supervisor of registration of said City shall publish notice of the opening said books in at least two weekly issues of some newspaper published in Live Oak or by posting in three public places, and the said books shall be kept open for the purpose of registration from the hour of nine o'clock a. m. to twelve m. and from two o'clock p. m. until five o'clock p. m. of each day. Such registration notice shall state the time and place and the days in which said books shall be kept open. At the expiration of the registration period herein provided for said books shall be closed to registration for such primary.

SECTION 4. No person can vote or take part in the proceedings of any primary election who is not by the Ordinances of said City a lawful elector and authorized to vote in any legal election in said City.

SECTION 5. The executive or standing city committee calling such primary election may declare the terms and conditions on which lawful electors offering to vote at such election shall be regarded and taken as proper members of the party at whose instance or in whose interest such primary election has been called or may be held, and therefore entitled to vote at such election as a member of that party.

SECTION 6. Any recognized member of the party in whose interest such election is held may challenge the right of any person offering to vote at such election and the inspectors authorized to hold and holding such election shall determine on the evidence then furnished whether the person so offering is entitled to vote at such election and shall receive or reject such votes so offered as to them the evidence for or against the right of the persons so offering to vote shall reasonably warrant.

SECTION 7. The inspectors holding such primary election under the provisions of this Ordinance may of their own motion, or in case of the challenge of any person offering to vote, if they deem there is any doubt of the propriety under the provisions of this Ordinance of the votes so offered, require of the person so offering to vote his oath to the fact which authorized the vote and if the person so offering to vote declines to make oath so demanded his vote shall be rejected.

SECTION 8. All votes at such primary elections shall be by ballot; each ballot shall conform to the requirements of the general election ordinance of said City.

SECTION 9. The report of the committee so directing such primary election by the officers holding the same shall be in writing with which the original ballots shall be returned and the poll list of the voters made at the time of the voting and the reasons on which any challenged vote was received or rejected. Said committee shall carefully examine the returns and reports so made and thereupon decide who have been chosen by the majority vote cast in the primary election as candidates of the party for the office or offices to be filled in the approaching election, or what person or persons have been chosen as members of the executive committee calling such election.

SECTION 10. A second primary election shall be held within two weeks after the first primary election to choose in all cases where no person shall have received a majority of all votes cast for the several candidates receiving the highest vote in the first primary election. Where several officers are to be voted for for the same office, as in case of Alderman for the City at Large, a number of candidates not exceeding twice the number not nominated in the first primary shall be voted for in the second primary and those candidates receiving the highest vote in the second primary of the number remaining to be chosen shall be considered chosen.

SECTION 11. The inspectors who may hold such primary election under this Ordinance and return the votes, proceedings and acts thereof, herein provided, shall, before assuming the duties, make oath before some officer authorized to administer oaths that they will honestly, faithfully and to the best of their ability do and perform all the duties of their respective offices.

SECTION 12. At any primary election ordered by such executive or standing city committee where the inspectors appointed shall not be present from any cause, the members of the party present may appoint from their number a full set of inspectors and clerk who shall take the oath prescribed in the preceding Section and shall proceed to hold such election ordered the same as if regularly appointed.

SECTION 13. The Marshal of said City is required to see that good order is preserved at such primary election and may arrest and carry before the Mayor any and all persons who may be guilty of any violation of the provisions of this Ordinance and prefer charges against any offending person, who upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding One Hundred Dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding Ninety days.

SECTION 14. The executive or standing city committee of the political party calling such primary election is hereby authorized to regulate the amount to be paid the inspectors and clerk of such election and to provide funds for defraying expenses of conducting such election by assessing the various candidates for nomination at such primary election; provided, that no candidate shall be assessed more than two per cent of the annual compensation of the office for which he is a candidate.

SECTION 15. In the appointment of inspectors and clerk of such primary election, the committee making such appointment shall so far as possible select qualified voters from a list agreed upon by a majority of the candidates before such primary election; provided such agreed list is filed with the committee.

SECTION 16. Except as herein provided, all elections at primary elections under this Ordinance shall be regulated by the general election ordinance of said City in force at the time such primary election is held as nearly as the same can be done.

SECTION 17. The executive or standing city committee when petitioned by a majority of the qualified electors of the same party to which said committee belong, shall call and cause to be held a primary election as provided for in this Ordinance.

SECTION 18. All primary elections shall be held not less than twenty days before the day for the general city election.

SECTION 19. No executive or standing city committee shall have a candidate before any primary election shall act or serve as such committee, and any vacancy caused by such disqualification may be filled by said executive or standing city committee.

SECTION 20. The executive or standing city committee shall hear and determine all contests or protests filed by any candidate before such primary election and the decisions and rulings of said committee shall be final as to any candidate before such primary.

SECTION 21. The Chairmen of such executive or standing city committee shall cause the names of the successful candidates to be placed on the official ballot for to be certified to the Mayor and City Council at least ten days before the general election, and placed on the official ballot at the polls on election day.

SECTION 22. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

SECTION 23. This ordinance shall take effect upon its passage by the Council and approval by the Mayor.

Passed by the City Council this 11th day of February, A. D. 1909.

Attest: J. E. WOOD, Act. Pres. City Council. S. P. MAYS, City Clerk.

I, S. P. Mays, City Clerk of the City of Live Oak, Florida, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing Ordinance No. 77 was regularly passed by the City Council on the 11th day of February, A.
